KEY PROJECTS

Rixotrix CRM (Customer Relationship Management System)

Role: Web Frontend Designer (HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript, React.js)
- Designed and developed responsive, user-friendly front-end interfaces to provide an intuitive CRM experience across devices.
- Implemented clean HTML5, CSS3, and Bootstrap layouts, ensuring cross-browser compatibility and optimized performance.
- Collaborated with backend developers to integrate dynamic features like customer dashboards, reporting modules, and workflow screens.
- Created custom reusable UI components (forms, tables, modals, navigation menus) to maintain design consistency and improve development speed.
- Translated business requirements into interactive and visually appealing CRM modules, supporting features like customer 360° view, analytics dashboards, and workflow customization.
- Ensured pixel-perfect design implementation with attention to typography, spacing, and brand guidelines.

Podixa

Role: Web Frontend Designer / UI Developer

- Built and styled responsive web pages using HTML5, CSS3, and modern layout systems (Flexbox/Grid or Bootstrap), ensuring smooth performance across devices (desktop, tablet, mobile).
- Designed and implemented interactive user-interface components (forms, navigations, modal dialogs, sliders, tabs) to improve user engagement.
- Optimized front-end for performance: reduced load times, improved asset management (minified CSS/JS, optimized images etc.).
- Ensured consistent branding and user experience by following style guides, choosing typography and color schemes, and maintaining uniform spacing and layout.
- Collaborated with designers, back-end developers, and QA to translate mockups/wireframes into working interfaces, and to test/fix UI bugs.
- Improved accessibility and SEO by using semantic HTML, proper tagging (alt attributes, heading structure), and ensuring mobile friendliness.
